

YOUTH LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

Get together with people eager to make a difference in the world.

Open up to team activities.

Talk about the current issues you are facing in life.

Learn what “personal capacity” means and practice skills to increase awareness of your abilities.

Share your culture and history with other participants.

Find time to reflect.

TESTIMONIALS

I thought I understood the hardships that most Native Americans face on reservations, but hearing it from my peers in small group settings opened my mind and heart even further. -Mackenzie

The summit was a very humbling experience, that I will carry and treasure with me forever. -Rhyia

Throughout the summit, connections were established, I have hope for the future. -Lizzy

Dear Youth Participant between the age of 15-18, we ask that you:

Make a firm commitment to attending Friday, Saturday and Sunday sessions. We highly recommend arrival on Thursday evening and your attendance at the Monday presentations.

Share what you learn with 3 to 5 people.

Find a service learning project in your area and get involved with giving back in your community during the months that follow the Summit.

Participate in a reconvening session mid-year to share successes and look ahead to the Youth Leadership Summit in 2020.

For Parents - Donation/Support:

Your tax deductible donation or in-kind support is greatly appreciated. Please let us know how you can help.

VISION

The Youth Leadership Summit aims to provide young people with a foundation of integrity and compassionate leadership training as they discover their direction and seek to contribute positive solutions to their personal and global families, communities and natural world.

MISSION

Provide safe, facilitated group settings for dialogue on interpersonal relationships and forums for exploration of issues.

Promote appreciation and respect for all cultures and the natural environment by harnessing creativity and the power of the arts.

Provide strategies and skills for youth to successfully navigate and impact today's world.
